Appointment of Chief Probation Officer, El Dorado County Probation Department

Placerville, CA, June 22, 2010:

The El Dorado County Superior Court is pleased to announce the appointment of Gregory S. Sly as Chief Probation Officer, El Dorado County Probation Department. Gregory Sly fills the vacancy created by the retirement of Chief Probation Officer Joseph S. Warchol.

The Hon. Suzanne N. Kingsbury, Presiding Judge of the El Dorado Superior Court, states: "We were pleased with the number of extremely qualified candidates for the position and the task of selecting a Chief Probation Officer proved to be difficult due to the high caliber of the applicants."

Chief Probation Officer Gregory Sly has an impressive background, with four years of services as a Law Enforcement Specialist for the United States Air Force. He then attended and graduated from San Jose State University with a B.S. Degree in Administration of Justice. He served as a member of the California Highway Patrol before deciding to pursue a career in the Probation Department.

Gregory started with the El Dorado County Probation Department in September 1990 as a Deputy Probation Officer I and has worked throughout the years between the West Slope and South Lake Tahoe Probation Offices. He has held various assignments with the Probation Department that include Juvenile Supervision, Juvenile and Adult Court Investigator, Civil Court
