ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER RE: JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENTS AND PUBLIC ACCESS TO COURTHOUSES

During the period between 03/23/2020 and 04/16/2020, the following orders will be in effect:

Judicial Assignments:

A. Honorable Jamie Pesce – Department 5

1. Judge Pesce shall shelter in place offsite until further order of the court, and will handle all matters electronically or by phone.
2. Judge Pesce shall handle all emergency Family Law matters, such as ex partes and requests for domestic violence restraining orders, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. On Monday and Friday, Judge Vicki Ashworth and Judge Ken Melikian will handle emergency Family Law matters.

B. Honorable Dylan Sullivan – Department 9

1. Judge Sullivan shall shelter in place offsite until further order of the court, and will handle all matters electronically or by phone.
2. Judge Sullivan shall serve as the daytime magistrate from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday, and handle all emergency requests that are not Family Law matters.

C. General Provisions:

1. Judicial officers onsite for the purposes of handling a calendar assignment are ordered to return to their offsite shelter once calendars are completed, but are to remain available to conduct emergency business until 5:00 pm., and that thereafter, the designated on-call judge will be responsible for emergency matters.

Public Access to Courthouses:

Public access to courthouses is limited to only those persons who have been ordered to appear for a calendared matter where an in person appearance is statutorily mandated. Access to the courthouse is also limited to parties under subpoena to be present in person for a calendared matter, victims and statutorily allowed advocates or support persons, parents or guardians of a minor who is subject of a juvenile or guardianship proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
